

Dear Barbara Wilson

My name is Jamie Gilbert and I am nineteen. For most of my childhood I could not read. I would memorize words and that is how I got through each grade. When I was about seventeen, I came out and told a teacher about my reading problem. At that time, the school I was going to wasn't helping me. Me and mom made the choice to look in to other schools. It took about a year to find the school that had a reading program that seem to be teaching me how to read. This program is yours... the Wilson Reading System.

Now I'm on book ten and reading books without help. You gave so much to me and I wanted to thank you for giving me a new life. Cause of you I have dream.

I wanted to give back to the Wilson Reading System, but I not sure how. please let me know if I can help.
