

Fundations® Readers

Fundations® Readers book sets releasing for the 2024-2025 school year!

Introducing Fundations® Readers! Our brand new Foundations Readers sets are 95% or more decodable books aligned to the Foundations scope and sequence. These beautifully illustrated books reinforce taught phonics, word structure, and fluency skills, providing targeted practice to improve fluency. Because each book is so closely aligned to the curriculum, students can read the majority of the text with word knowledge taught in class, instilling confidence in early readers while requiring less teacher prep and supervision.

On the Same Page.

Engaging Storybooks Aligned With Foundations®.

Beautifully Illustrated: Full-page, detailed illustrations reflect diverse backgrounds, ages, and abilities.

Familiar themes and characters. Each Level aligns with the grade-level curriculum theme, and features recurring characters to keep students engaged.

Rich content and extension activities. The collection combines narrative and informational text to enhance comprehension with supplemental content and activities.
